Easter Camp runs activities which carry a risk of injury if carried out without due care or in disregard of instructions. Whilst all practicable steps will be taken to ensure your safety, Easter Camp accepts no liability for loss, injury or damage to your property or person, whether arising through our negligence or otherwise. To keep Easter Camp safe we have rules; Follow instructions given to you by Easter Camp staff; Notify us of any potential hazard or potential hazard which you spot; Tell us if you don't want to participate in any activity or there is anything (such as illness or injury) which may affect our decision to allow you to participate in any activity; Not do anything which may put yourself or others at risk of harm. I am aware that photos, video and personal information gathered at camp may be used for promotional purposes later on and that if I withdraw from camp I am eligible for a refund of all but a $50 non-refundable portion of my fees if I notify prior to April 2nd.

Parent/Guardian to sign (camper to sign if 18yrs or over):

(Where signed by parent/guardian, the parent/guardian agrees to ensure that their child understands the requirements of participation set out in this form)
